

Iza Rokicka

She has over 15 years of experience in capital markets. Since 2016, she has worked at ING Bank Śląski, currently in the role of Director of the Investor Relations and ESG Reporting Bureau. In her previous professional role, she was a sell-side equity analyst specializing in the Polish financial sector, especially banks. She worked for, among others, Ipopema Securities, mBank Securities and UniCredit CAIB Poland. She has been awarded and distinguished many times in independent industry rankings for sell-side equity analysts and investor relations specialists. Since 2022, she has been a member of the Management Board of ING Investment Holding, and since 2023 a member of the Supervisory Board of Paymento Financial. She is a graduate of Warsaw School of Economics and a graduate of the Professional Supervisory Board postgraduate program at Kozminski University.

She is also a member of Oversight Committee of Capital Market Benchmarks at GPW Benchmark.